> A FRENCH REVOLUTIONIST -M. Caussi diere died at Paris on the 27th of January. The deceased was a man of heroic character, and had passed a strange and eventful life.-Born in 1809, at Lyons, he spent his earlier years as a workman in a factory, but when prisoned, but released in 1837, and became one of the editors of La Reforme, a revolutionary journal. In 1848 he shares the fortunes of the revolutionists, and took part on the barricades in those startling scenes which Paris witnessed in that year. He was arpointed prefect police, and displayed remarkable ability and energy; but later, falling under the displeasure of the government, he was obliged to leave France, and, seeking refuge in London, entered into the wine business, backed by the Rothschilds, to whom be tionary days. He subsequently removed to New York, and was for a time quite a lion. Here, too, he carried on the wine business. and made many acquaintances among New York merchants.
